HEBER SIXTH WARD

The newest ward in Heber City is the Sixth Ward organized January 27, 1957 with Harold H. Smith as bishop. The ward was created from a division of the First and Third Wards and includes the area from Second South to the north city limits and from Main Street to Third East.

Bishop Smith chose Maron R. Hiatt and Elmo A. Jacobsen as his counselors with Guy Olpin as ward clerk and Max L. Lee as assistant. The ward shares the First Ward Chapel, which has become known as the First Sixth Ward Chapel. Harris Parcell and Russell Wall were called as counselors to Bishop Smith when the former counselors were called to stake positions.
